

TAXICAB TRUST MUST OBEY LAW DESPITE COURTS

Injunction Does Not Apply to Those Cars Whose Licenses Expired Before Aug. 1.

By Sophie Irene Loeb.
Until Oct. 24, when Justice Ingraham of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court will hear the arguments in the

CASTORIA

taxicab rate cases, the public will be protected in every possible way from exorbitant fares and the public hackmen will have more opportunity in the use of the streets where cab companies have had private privileges.

For several weeks cab companies under the cloak of injunctions have been carrying on their business without observing either the old or new ordinance; but by Justice Ingraham's assertion that they were not to enjoy any privileges they did not have prior to August 1, their activities in this direction will be largely curtailed.

Under the terms of a letter sent by the Corporation Counsel to the Mayor's Bureau of Licenses, every driver and cab and taximeter of the companies will appear before the Inspection Bureau, and if their licenses have expired they will have to obtain new licenses under the new ordinance.

Public hack stand signs will be placed in front of hotels and other places which have been designated as public hackstands under the new ordinance and which have not secured injunctions.
No private hackstand permit which expired prior to Aug. 1 will be recognized, so that at the following places hackstand permits have expired and the companies cannot now hold them to the exclusion of the public cabmen who have lower rates of fare:

HERE ARE THE PLACES WHERE PERMITS HAVE EXPIRED.
Hotels—Algonquin, Ansonia, Breezlin,

Brevort, Chelsea, Herald Square, Hermitage, Hoffman House, Imperial, King Edward, Lyric, Marlborough, Miller's, Rex, St. Denis, St. Hubert, St. Marguerite, Seymour, Traymore, Woodward, York.

Restaurants—Churchill's, Rogers's, Healy's, Hoffman's Rest, Pekin, Wolf's Chop House.

Clubs and other places—Belmont Apartments, Century Association, Engineers' Club, Freundschaft Club, New Harlem Casino, New York Athletic Club, New York Club, Racquet and Tennis Club, Republican Club, Ted Snyder Company.

Deputy Inspector Drennon will have his inspectors keep close watch at these places and violators will be brought to trial. Unless the cab companies obtain new licenses in places of those that have expired they will not be allowed to operate, and new licenses will be issued under the provisions of the new ordinance.

Thus every pre-emption will be taken to give access to these places to public hacks, so that lower rates, to which the public is justly entitled, may be had at these places, where formerly only the higher rates were in practice.

Terence Farley, Assistant Corporation Counsel, has asked the Presiding Justice that if the injunction is continued until the appeal is determined the companies be compelled to give receipts of some kind, which will indicate how much in excess of the fare prescribed by the new ordinance they are collecting; that the amount deposited by the companies in some trust company to be designated by the court and that they stipulate that these receipts will be redeemed at their face value when the new ordinance is finally upheld.

Mr. Farley contends that if this is not done the public will have no protection.
The only remedy a person will have who is obliged to pay an excessive fare will be to sue to recover the excess.

DEMANDS RIGHT TO SEE BOOKS OF THE COMPANIES.

He further insists that the cab companies be required to open their books.
It will be remembered that the only time the companies ever submitted any figures in the whole controversy and investigations was during the public hearings before the investigating committee of the Board of Aldermen. Then they did so under the explicit condition that they were to be treated "privately." And even these figures have been unavailable to the Corporation Counsel after continued effort to get them.

As to this Mr. Farley stated to the Court:

"Although the taxicab companies claim that the new rates are confes-sory in that they cannot profitably operate under them, they have thus far refused, in response to repeated demands made upon them, to produce their books and accounts, either before some referee to be named by the court, so that they may be examined by the judicial authorities, or to permit the Commissioners of Accounts or some other public accountants to examine them on behalf of the municipal authorities, so that the defendants will be in a position, if these suits are ever brought to trial, to combat their assertion that these rates are confessional." It is expected that Judge Ingraham will grant these further modifications of the injunction before Oct. 24, the time set for the hearing of the arguments.

GIRL KILLED BY GAS.

Her Male Companion Unconscious, and Terrible Lives.

A young man and a young woman, both poorly clad, and with a small terrier dog, took a room in Mrs. Kate Hallenbach's lodging house, No. 38 West Fifty-third street, Saturday night. Yesterday morning Mrs. Hallenbach smelled gas and opened the door with a pass key. Man and girl were senseless. Gas was escaping from an opened jet. The terrier had saved its life by lying with its nose to the crack under the door.

The couple were hurried to Flower Hospital, where the girl died today.
From what few effects she had—the couple had no baggage, it appeared—she was Vivian Corb. Her address, or more about her, could not be learned. The young man remained unconscious.

BURGLARS GET $800 BY CRACKING SAFE

Firm in Williamsburg Victim of Clever Crooks Who Leave Tools Behind.

Crackmen in the big wholesale meat and fish market of Perrelli & Ruth, at Nos. 124 to 126 Bedford avenue, Williamsburg, blew open the safe last night and got $800 in cash and a bundle of checks.

The burglars entered the cellar by ripping up an iron sidewalk grating, then from the cellar they cut a hole through the flooring above their heads and found themselves on the main floor, screened from observation by the shaded front windows.

They trundled the big safe from its place in the cashier's office to the rear of the store, tipped it on its side and bored a hole for the charge about the lock. Two horse blankets and a quantity of wrapping paper, first soaked in water to prevent fire, were used to deaden the noise of the explosion.

The safe was completely wrecked. To avoid suspicion on the street the burglars left behind them their complete kit of burglars' tools. When Edward Haight, one of the butchers, opened the market early today he saw the havoc that had been done and notified the police of the Bedford avenue station.

DIVING FOR $2,000,000 LOST IN SHIPWRECK

German, With New Invention, Goes Down 600 Feet for Treasure in San Francisco Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Two million dollars in gold which went to the bottom of San Francisco Bay with the steamer Rio de Janeiro in 1901 is to be the quest of a German inventor who has a diving apparatus which his claims will enable him to reach a depth of 900 feet.

Yesterday he tested his device here, going to the bottom of the bay in more than 100 feet of water and remaining down an hour. It is said the greatest depth previously reached by a diver was 92 feet.

sane, hanged himself today in the county jail, having improvised a rope with his suspenders and a part of his bedding.

Vreeland was arrested on Friday on a charge of threatening the lives of his son Edward and his son-in-law, John

How to Make Better Cough Syrup than You Can Buy

A Family Supply, Saving 25 and Fully Guaranteed.

A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of the ordinary cough more quickly, usually conquering it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for spasmodic croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and bronchitis.

Mix one part of granulated sugar with 1½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents) worth in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membrane is well known.
Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract rich in gualaid and other natural, healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy has often been imitated, but the old successful mixture has never been equalled.
It is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy.

These Little NOTIONS Play a Big Part
